

DR. MAYS ALJBORI

Dr. Mays Aljbori is an experienced and well-educated practitioner. She is a member of American Academy of Public Health Dentistry. She received her Bachelor degree from the faculty of dentistry at Ajman University of Science and Technology in 2010. Dr. Mays finished her internship in Ajman University (2010-2011) then she worked as a clinical supervisor for two years after that she started to work in private clinics so she has been in practice for 7 years providing the most advanced used to seek out the latest techniques, trends, and developments in the dental field by attending many conferences & workshops. She enjoyed working by providing quality dentistry for her patients and taking care of adults and children in her practice

